DESIGNATION OF BENEFICIARY(IES)

I hereby make the following designation of beneficiary pursuant to the provisions of the TD Ameritrade qualified plan document or the IRA application. In the event of my death, all assets in this account will be transferred according to allocation identified below.

At least one Primary Beneficiary must be designated. If all Primary Beneficiaries are deceased, or have chosen to disclaim their shares, the assets in my account will be distributed to the Contingent Beneficiary(ies) designated below, and will be divided in the specified share amounts indicated below.

Percentages must total 100% for all primary beneficiaries and 100% for all contingent beneficiaries. If percentages are not indicated, they will be deemed equal shares. If percentages indicate an attempt to distribute as equal shares, but do not add up to 100%, the first named beneficiary will receive a slightly higher percentage (for instance, if you indicate 33%, 33.3% or 33.33% for all three beneficiaries, TD Ameritrade will round the first beneficiary's percentage up to 33.34% and the other two beneficiaries will each receive 33.33%). Further, when securities cannot be evenly distributed, or there are unclaimed securities, the Account Owner requests that such securities be liquidated and any proceeds from the liquidation be distributed in the percentages requested to the named Beneficiaries.

If the "Per Stirpes" box is checked and that Beneficiary dies before the Account Owner, that Beneficiary's share will pass to his or her living descendants, instead of being reallocated to the other remaining named Beneficiaries. Please note that the "Per Stirpes" designation carries certain legal and tax implications, and may not be available in all states. TD Ameritrade cannot advise whether a "Per Stirpes" election is appropriate for the Account Owner's tax or estate planning. Please consult a qualified tax advisor or attorney for details regarding this designation.

For IRAs

If Account Owner is married and lives in a state with community property statutes and does not designate his/her spouse as the sole primary beneficiary, Account Owner represents and warrants that his/her spouse has consented to such designation.

If this is a Minor IRA, Account Owner understands that only the Minor's estate can be the beneficiary until such time as the Minor reaches the age of termination and assumes control of the IRA assets by converting the IRA assets to a standard individual IRA Account.

If you name a trust, estate or entity as your beneficiary, additional documentation and certifications will be required to request distribution beyond the named trust, estate, or entity. Contact TD Ameritrade Institutional for details.

For QRPs (Please provide your current marital status)

I Am Not Married

I understand that if I become married in the future, my spouse will be my Primary Beneficiary unless I complete a new Designation of Beneficiary Form, and my spouse consents to my designation.

I Am Married

If you are married, your Plan requires that you designate your spouse as the primary beneficiary. To name a primary beneficiary other than your spouse or in addition to your spouse, your spouse must sign on Section 3 - Spousal Consent and the signature must be witnessed by a notary public.
